EYES ON THE PHILIPPINES

Everybody Watching the Result of Dewey's Campaign.

DIPLOMATS BUSY WITH THEIR FUTURE

Trade for British West Indies Not a Good Bargain—People Not Satisfied with Conditions.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The French ambassador M. Jules Cambon, has received a dispatch from the foreign office at Paris stating that the French ambassador at Madrid, M. Patenotre, has forwarded official details of the Spanish reverse at Manila. M. Patenotre's report was based on the latest Spanish official advice. It states that the Spanish cruiser Reina Maria Christina and Castilla were totally burned up, being set on fire by bombs from the enemy's ships. Two of the smaller Spanish ships, the dispatch states, were sunk in order to avoid falling into the hands of the enemy. The other Spanish ships were half destroyed and had their masts in Rakor's bay. The British ambassador here, Lord Curzon, has received reports of the same character as to the Manila battle, so that there is no basis for the statements that the State department has been informed by British officials here that Manila has surrendered to Commodore Dewey.

SENDING COAL TO DEWEY'S FLEET.

NEW YORK, May 3.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Secretary Long has taken immediate measures to relieve the United States fleet in the Pacific of any embarrassment it might feel for lack of fuel. Orders have been telegraphed to the government authorities at San Francisco to select two of the swift ships at the port, load them with coal and dispatch them at once to the relief of Commodore Dewey's fleet. Japan and Japan delayed making declarations of neutrality, some experts in international law hold that the United States may still obtain coal for its fleet from Japan.

PROVIDES PROMOTION FOR DEWEY.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Representative Grout of Vermont today introduced the following resolution: Whereas, the intrepidity and skill displayed by Commodore George Dewey during attack upon the Spanish fleet in Manila harbor and its total destruction, covered as it was by the protecting guns of the United States fleet, and the gallant and heroic conduct of the United States fleet, and the high quality of his naval command; therefore, Resolved, That he ought to be promoted to the rank of admiral and the president is hereby authorized to nominate him for that rank to the senate, which body is hereby authorized to confirm him, the general laws regulating promotion in the navy to the contrary notwithstanding.

Point Fight Over a Woman.

MOBILE, Ala., May 3.—A street duel took place here tonight between James Mason of this city and Cliff Wade, a hotel keeper of Madison, Mo., as the result of which both were probably injured. Wade has three bullets in his stomach and breast while Mason was struck twice in the chest and once in the arm. A police officer, Sheriff, received a bullet through the wrist while trying to stop the fight. The trouble occurred over a woman.

Twenty Ballots Without Result.

OTTAWA, Kan., May 3.—The republican caucus here today, which was held in the Kansas district took twenty ballots without reaching an agreement. W. J. Buchanan of Kansas City is in the lead, having 115 votes, while forty-five are required to nominate. The other candidates are J. P. Harris of Ottawa, J. D. Bowerman of Ottawa, and R. Smith of Mound City and E. C. Gates of Port Scott.

Silver Takes a Fall.

NEW YORK, May 3.—There was a decline of seven-eighths of 1 cent an ounce in the price of silver today in sympathy with a decline in London. It was due to the Indian government's proposal to stabilize the gold standard in the Indian empire.

Methodist Conference at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, May 3.—The thirteenth quadrennial conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South will assemble in Baltimore on Friday morning and will hold business sessions daily for about three weeks.

Republicans Win in St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 3.—Today's municipal election, estimated on a ninety-two vote margin, has resulted in the election of Colonel A. R. Kiefer, a republican, for mayor by about 2,000 plurality.

Father Murders His Children.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Jacob Grimm, a small shopkeeper, 50 years of age, living on Madison street, was arrested today for the murder of his children, mortally wounded a third and inflicted fatal wounds on himself.

Value of April Imports.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The value of imports at this port during April was: Invoice value, $1,000,000,000; total, $1,000,000,000; appraisers' advances, $42,374; total, $1,042,374.

Movements of Ocean Vessels, May 3.

At New York—Arrived—Alesia, from Marsellus, Werdeman, from Rotterdam; Nland, from London; from Wilhelm; from Bremen. Sailed—Hoy, for Liverpool; H. G. for Genoa.

English Praised for Dewey.

LONDON, May 3.—The majority of the important British provincial papers today pay warm tributes to the conduct of Commodore Dewey and the United States fleet at Manila.

THE LEEDS MERCURY SAYS: "The operations of the United States squadron were skillfully planned and executed and it was a daring operation, entering the bay under the cover of darkness."

THE BRADFORD OBSERVER SAYS: "It was a singularly daring exploit and it will rank high in naval annals, not in America merely, but throughout the world."

HOLD ON TO THE PHILIPPINES.

To Be Kept as Security for Indemnity from Spain.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The cabinet is expected to decide today whether troops shall be sent to assist Dewey in retaining possession of Manila. The president will await advice from Commodore Dewey before deciding whether to send troops to Manila. The administration has practically decided to occupy the Philippines with a strong military force as soon as possible after Commodore Dewey's report is received. Tomorrow, has been received. For this purpose Pacific slope troops will be used, and it is expected that at least 5,000 will be enroute within the next ten days.

VIENNA GOVERNMENT DOES NOT PROPOSE TO MOVE AWAY.

LONDON, May 3.—(New York World Telegram—Special Telegram)—The Daily Telegraph Vienna special says: Although the position of the queen regent of Spain grows daily more difficult, work of the cabinet by the Austrian cabinet in the matter, notwithstanding great and wide sympathy in the foreign office that Austria must be carefully avoided. This is only in a slight accordance with the principles already laid down. However, such an attempt at re-ordering assistance to the queen regent might be easily misinterpreted and best to compare the situation at present with those who do with Americans, and not to give rise to a misunderstanding in many quarters. Accordingly, there is a firm determination here that if Austria takes any part at all with regard to the election of the queen regent, the Austrian cabinet will be only to take part in a united action with the European cabinets, and then only if Austria herself seeks the intervention of the powers.

RECRUITING WORK MOVES SLOWLY.

CHICKAMAUGA NATIONAL PARK, Ga., May 3.—Recruiting the regular army at Chickamauga park is going forward slowly, but it is believed that the full quota of 10,000 troops will be speedily obtained. Considerable stir was created at the camp today over the announcement received from official sources from Washington, and given out by Adjutant General Charles G. Smith, president had named the following officers to be brigadiers to command in the volunteer regiments: Colonel J. M. Smith, Second Sixth infantry; Colonel John C. Bates, Second infantry; Colonel Guy V. Henry, Tenth infantry; and Colonel A. R. Chaffee, Third cavalry.

Celebrate Dewey's Victory.

PINLAY, O., May 3.—Probably the most jubilant people in the United States today are the citizens of the village of Deweyville, fifteen miles northeast of here. This town was located by and named after Commodore Dewey in the famous battle of Manila, and was interested for a short time in locating a slave factory in this section for the firm of Dewey, Palmer & Co. of New York. The town is now a quiet village, and is a relic of the hero of Manila. The people have been in a constant state of jubilation since Monday because of the victory and today raised a tremendous flagpole with an American flag and commodore's pennant to commemorate the event, the whole surrounding country participating.

Order for a Cuban Postoffice.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The postmaster general today issued an order to establish postal service in the Cuban port first occupied by the United States, and appointed Brewer of Pittsburg, Pa., special agent of the department to organize the work. The service will cover not only the army mails or troops or officers, but business mail of the ordinary character for the territory, temporarily under the authority of the army.

No Idea of Surrendering.

LONDON, May 3.—It is announced in a special despatch from Madrid that there is no idea of surrender there, either in military circles or among the populace. On the contrary, it is added, the war is to be pursued with greater vigor.

Officers to Issue Licenses.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Secretary Gago has officially notified that the Canadian government has established offices on the passes from Tulya and Skagway, where licenses may be obtained by those crossing the mountains and desiring to engage in mining on the Alaska border in British territory.

Long Asks for More Money.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The secretary of the navy made an application for an appropriation of $2,505,500 for the use of bureau of yards and docks. This is in addition to the $18,140,000 asked for this morning.

COAST TROOPS SHOW INTEREST.

Prospect of Going to the Philippines Pleases Them. SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—The announcement that the government would probably send Pacific coast troops to the Philippines as soon as possible after Commodore Dewey's report has been received created considerable excitement in this city. In the absence of General Merritt, who is in command of the Department of War, and the Vancouver barracks, nothing definite could be learned as to what, if any instructions, had been received or given, but his subordinates said they thought the extreme severity of the tonnage tax upon British, French and German commerce coming to American ports. It was stated by the diplomat that in the case of the big ship Kawan, Wilhelm von Grosse, the tonnage tax would amount to $17,500 per year against $2,500 at present. It was remarked in this connection that it was rather strange that foreign governments to adopt neutrality decrees, and at the same time ask them to share in paying the cost of the war.

Flying Squadron Keeps Up Its Record in Target Practice.

FORT MONROE, May 3.—(On board the flagship Brooklyn.)—The interest and enthusiasm over the victory of Commodore Dewey in the Philippines continued this morning in the fleet, but there was anxiety to know something of the American losses. It was a source of congratulation, based upon the meager details received, that the American gunners had proved their superiority in target practice, but business mail of the ordinary character for the territory, temporarily under the authority of the army.
